FOREWORD

Let us introduce to you
Joe White and Annie Mahoney
the B.H.S. gremlins. Joe and Annie are the two mischevious
elves who have helped us gather material for this yearbook. We, the Jackrabbit
Staff, hope that the incidents depicted in this book will be a constant reminder of the happiness that has been yours
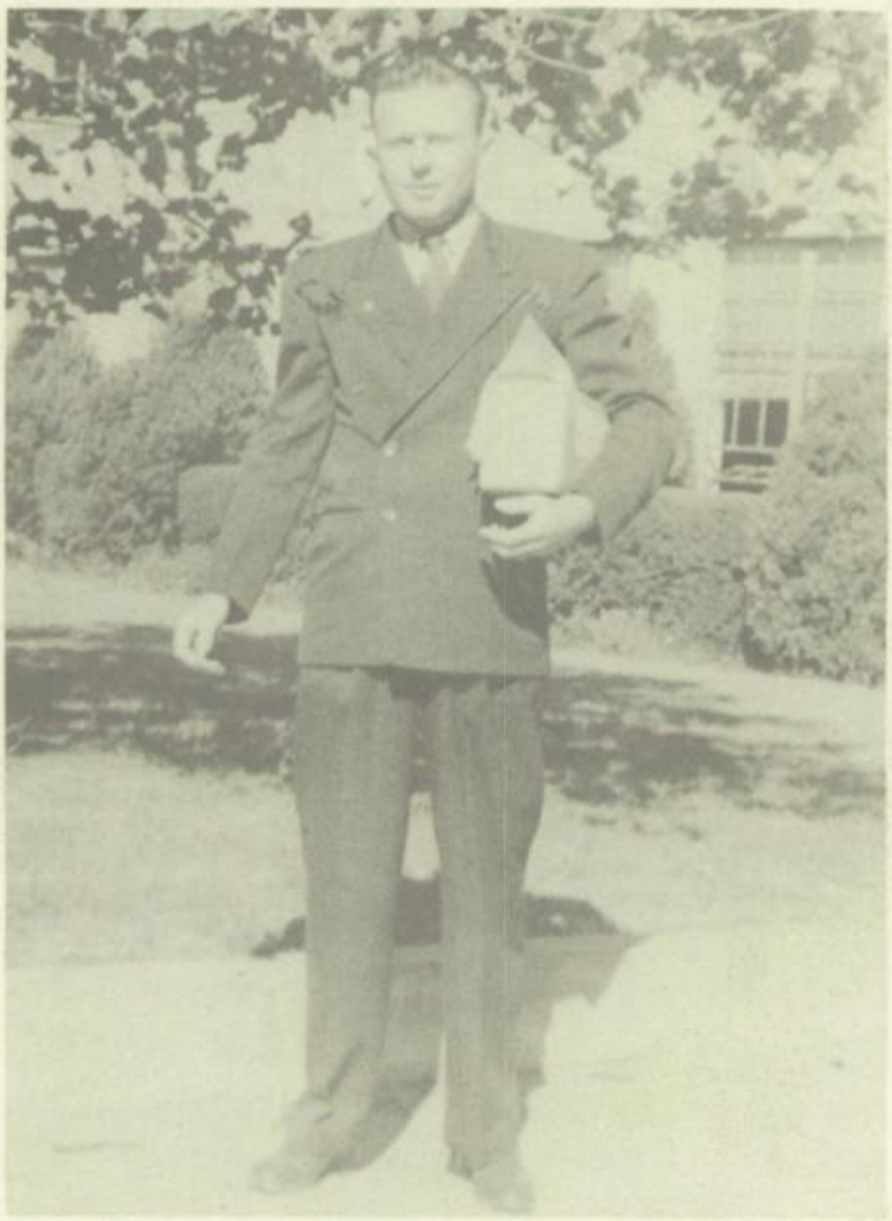
during this school year.

DEDICATION



In every student's life there is one teacher who will remain in his memory forever. We are fortunate to have one who has built school spirit and won such wide acclaim for our alma mater. Because of his interest in school activities unselfish service and musical accomplishments we feel that Bowie High is a better place in which to spend our school days and we affectionately dedicate the 1946 Jackrabbit to our band director,

Mr. George Rucker.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

The students of this high school are happy to be members of Bowie High. You have shown that you are glad to be a part of "The Open Door" of this school. The administration, the faculty, and the student body are committed to the task of serving their needs to the fullest.

The values we have known in the past are discounted and we are passing through a stage of change, readjustment and reorganization. Everything constitutes a challenge to clear thinking, and clear thinking is possible only for people who have trained and disciplined minds; therefore, it becomes your duty to provide yourselves with opportunities for physical and mental growth and culture of the highest quality.

Your superintendent,

Walter B. Alexander

John Paul Taliaferro
Principal

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the congenial student body of Bowie High School of 1945-1946 I wish an abundant life for each member. Their co-operation with student activities as well as with extra-curricular work has made the student-administration work an easier task and a more successful one for the school. Best wishes for a life success in post-school days.

FOOTBALL

The 1945 Jackrabbits, under the direction of Coach Raymond E. Mattingly, pushed forward through a very tough season to end with second place in District 13A. The squad, lacking experience at the first of the season, did remarkably well--with seven victories, one tie, and one loss. On Thanksgiving Day the Jackrabbits climaxed their season by losing the District Championship to the Nocona Indians.

In appreciation of your contribution as morale builders for our school, we the staff in behalf of the student body and faculty, salute you, the 1945 Jackrabbits.

BASKETBALL

Coach Raymond E. Mattingly's quintet made an outstanding record during the season; the climax being the team's first chance at the state championship since the state tournament was started in 1921. Prior to the trip to Austin, the Bowie boys had a record of twenty-five wins in thirty games; and had not been beaten by a Class A team this season. After winning District, Bi-District, and Regional Championships, the Jackrabbits climaxed their season in the preliminaries of the State Tournament by losing a game to the East Mountain team. We are proud of this excellent record our boys have made.

BOWIE (-)UG(-) BAND

George Rucker

Director

June White

Drum Major

The president of the 1945-46 band was Bill Jack Evans; vice president, Clifford Wall; Secretary-treasurer, Nora Jean Rhyne. Our school would not be complete without the band and it's morale building qualities. Under the brilliant leadership of Mr. George Rucker, our band is known far and wide as one of the best in the state.

PEP SQUAD

This organization is one of the "musts" of B.H.S. The members, sponsored by Miss Wright and Miss Butler helped to create a winning spirit that was a big boost to our athletes. The leaders chosen by the Pep Squad were Joann Johnson, Senior; Wanda Bush, Junior; Wanda Beth Ratliff Sophomore; and Lu Jean Shelton, Freshman.

LIBRARY CLUB

Mrs. Young and her workers who compose the Library Club, have been a big help to all the students of B. H. S. of both grammar and high school. We appreciate their patience in helping us find the books that we desire.

DRAMA CLUB

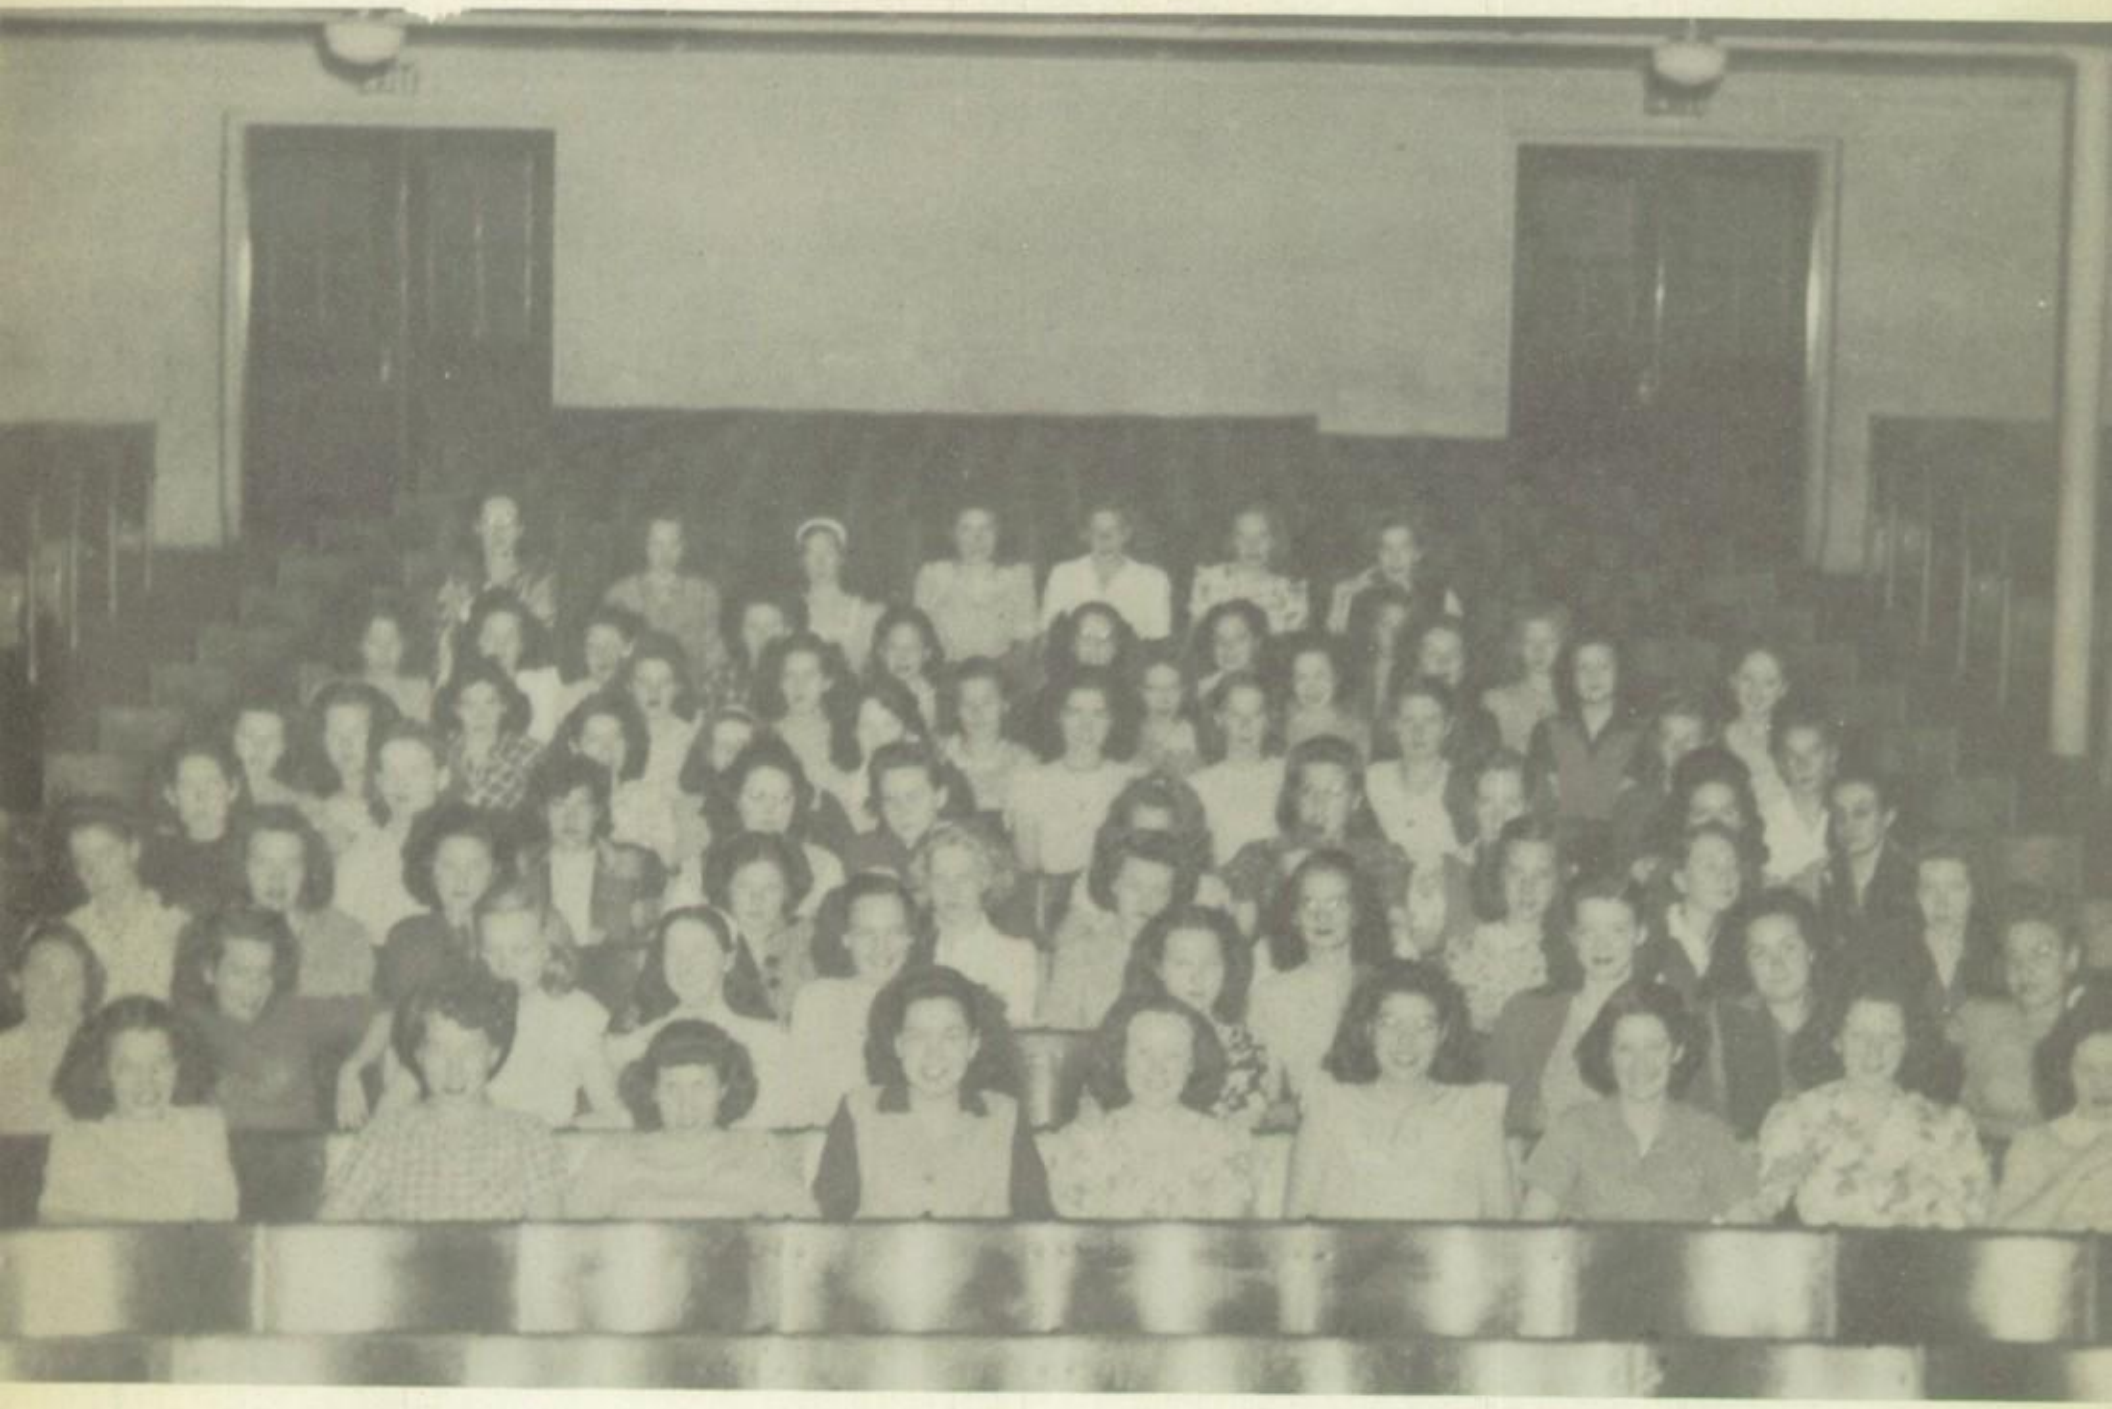
The Drama Club is for students interested in dramatics. This group is concerned mainly with the production of plays and have been responsible for several entertaining assembly programs. Mrs. Dees, as sponsor, has led this organization to better achievements in the dramatic field. The officers are: T. A. Wiginton, President: Clifford Wall, Vice-President; Betty Arnold, Secretary-Treasurer; and June White, Reporter.

CAMERA CLUB

The primary purpose of this organization is to teach the fundamentals of photography, which are developing, printing, and enlarging, This club is entertaining as well as educational, and under the guiding hand of Mr. Taliaferro, it has progressed rapidly.

The officers are: Glenn Chambers, President; Gordon Heard, Vice-President; Bettye Roberson, Secretary-Treasurer; and Janine Welch, Reporter.

HOMEMAKING



Future Homemakers of America--Look at the name! This is their first year to be affiliated with the National Organization and we are proud.

Their Emblem: Octagonal in shape and bears the name "Future Homemakers of America" around the top, while around the lower side of it is the motto. In the center is a house supported by two hands which symbolizes that the future homes of America are in their hands.

Their Motto: "Toward New Horizons"--Learning to live better today in order that their lives and those of their families may be better tomorrow.

Their Flower: Red Rose--Symbolic of vibrant, glowing health--a necessary attribute for happiness and efficiency.

Their Colors: Red and White--Symbolic of youth--youth which has an unwavering determination to succeed, yet has innocence and purity and holds integrity at its highest value.

Their Officers: Helen Worley, President; Evelyn Humphries, Vice-President; Greta Gardner, Secretary; Wanda Beth Ratliff, Treasurer; Lena Green, Reporter; Dorothy Odle, Parlimentarian; Joy Underwood, Historian; Jimmie Hamilton, Song Leader; and Bettye Robertson, Pianist.

AGRICULTURE

The Future Farmers of America is composed of high school boys interested in agriculture.

The National Emblem is made up of five symbols; the owl, the plow, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn, which is surmounted by the American eagle. Upon the face of the emblem appear also the words "Vocational Agriculture" and the letters "F. F. A." The owl is symbolic of wisdom and knowledge; the plow is the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun is emblematic of progress and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are trained and have learned to cooperate; the cross section of an ear of corn represents common agricultural interests since corn is native to America and grown in every state; and the eagle is indicative of the national scope of the organization.

The local officers are: Charles Whitehead, President; George Hoeldtke, Vice-President; Melvin Tucker, Secretary; Joe Evans, Treasurer; T. A. Wiginton, Reporter; and Carol Bishop, Sentinel.

MAROON AND WHITE

Among our most popular extra-curricular activities is the Maroon and White. It has furnished many moments of enjoyment for its subscribers, especially all the inside dope gathered by Ima Tattletale, the little gossip gremlin of the paper.

JACK RABBIT

In completing this yearbook we have tried to give you an authentic record of the important happenings that took place during this school year. We have worked diligently and we sincerely hope that in the years to come you will enjoy thumbing through the pages of this book, the "1946 Jackrabbit."

The staff was composed of the following: Editors, Cynthia Daley, Bill Jack Evans; Business Managers, Carrol Deavor, Donald Cleveland; Artists, Sybil Rhyne, Ollie Mae Hogan, Betty Heaton, Carrol Deavor, Doris Williams, Alyne Egenbacher, Glynna Faye Horton; Secretary, Bettye Roberson; Photographers, Glenn Chambers, Gordon Heard, Virginia Johnson, June White, Florence Kistler, Dorothy Gossett; Typists, Ruby Jean Vassar, Mary Lou Thompson, Velta Faye Roberts; Faculty Advisors, Miss Cohron, Miss Wright.
